

Comemorating 50 Years: Jobs, Justice, Freedom & Our Faith

You are invited to attend an interactive panel discussion in the spirit of the march for Jobs, Justice, and Freedom, ("Climate of Suspicion: the Criminalization of Race in America") to be followed by a healing worship service in the heart of Washington DC

Where? The panel will gather at Mt. Vernon Place UMC

Worship will take place at Historic Asbury UMC.

Both buildings are located in downtown Washington DC, accessible by Metro

When? August 27th, 2013 -- 50 years after the historic 1963 march

4:00 PM Panel Discussion @Mount Vernon Place UMC

900 Massachusetts Ave NW

7:00 PM Healing Worship @ Asbury UMC

926 11th Street NW

Special Guests Include...

Rev. Gil Caldwell
Panelist

Co-founder, Black Methodists for Church Renewal & retired UMC Elder

Charles Thornton
Panelist

Director of The Office on Returning Citizens Affairs, DC Mayor's Office

Rev. Dr. Pamela Lightsey
Preacher

Associate Dean at Boston School of Theology, Ordained Elder & Scholar

...and additional guests. Visit MFSAwEB.org for more information about the week's activities and for up-to-date posts
http://mfsaweb.org/?page_id